

IM ON THE MOVE

V1

Moving to a new home again
Wish I could find a good old friend
With any luuck who has a truck
To help me out form getting stuck

Stuck here for two years less a day
Anywhere is prison if you don't want to stay
I got my ticket out of here
To another place and for another year

Year after year I've moved around
To find a decent place that can't be found
I came to this city of opportunity
To get in on the boom economy

Bust goes my goals to get ahead
Just trying to pay for a foof overhead
I don't really need a Taj Mahal
Just a quiet ceiling and 4 clean walls

Chorus

All of my life is distilled to a few
Relics residing in cardboard cubes
Boxes full of memories stacked up in the front yard
Add up to the sum of me packed up in my old car
I'm on the move...on the move...on the move...gotta move

V2

A gypsy's cursed with a restless soul
Planting a seed is a futile goal
I want my life to grow some shoots
But I'm prevented from putting down roots

The roots of my past like routes on a map
Wind a crooked line into a rental trap
Of always seaching for a new home
A nice little place to call my own

My dad was a worker just like me
Who had a little house and a little family
I hope that I am as good as him
Prospects are a little dim

Dim witted is what I'm feeling now
I shouold be smart enough to figure out how
To get into the perfect lease
And find a little place to live in peace

Chorus

V3

What to keep and what to throw
Not much room for memories to go
Compact is m style of life
Wish I had room to occupy

Romance is on the hold again
Wish I could find a nice new friend
But my love seat is come undone
From the nuts and bolts that I've unspun

Spin goes the packing tape round and round
Binding up the things that I need found
It seems like such a long long trip
I hope this sticky tape will stick

Sticking out my foot I'm feeling blind
Arms full of boxes not left behind
I stumble forward and side to side
And once again I catch my stride
